

First. The person or persons proposing to sell any spirituous or fermented liquors in said town, shall file with the clerk of the Circuit Court for Dorchester county a written application for a license, signed by the applicant or applicants, and sworn to before said clerk, or some justice of the peace in and for said county, stating the full name or names, age and residence of the applicant or applicants, the exact locality in said town, designated with particularity, where the proposed place of sale is situated, the name of the owner or leasor of the house, that the applicant or applicants will keep a quiet and orderly house, that he or they will not permit any person, manifestly or apparently intoxicated, to drink any such liquors in the house or on the premises, while in such state of intoxication, that he or they will not sell or allow to be sold in said house, or on the premises, any such liquors, on Sundays or election days, or after 12 o'clock at night, or knowingly sell or allow to be sold therein or therefrom, to minors or persons manifestly or apparently intoxicated, at any time, or allow such minors or intoxicated persons to drink such liquors in said house or on the premises, and the juvenile appearance of any person shall, in the construction of this law, be sufficient to put the vendor of liquors upon inquiry; and all bar rooms established under the provisions of this act shall be located at least one hundred yards from any public school, and shall be what are termed open bar-rooms, and shall not be hidden or screened from public view, under penalties of section 8 of this act.

Second. The applicant or applicants shall at the same time file with the said clerk a writing, signed by at least ten respectable freeholders of the ward in said town where the proposed place of sale is located, stating that they personally know the applicant or applicants, and believe his or their statement, filed as above, to be true, and that he or they will faithfully observe the matters therein sworn to, and recommend that a license be issued to such applicant or applicants.

Third. The applicant or applicants shall at the same time file with the said clerk a bond to the State of Maryland in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the matters and things stated in the application for license and for the payment of all fines, penalties and costs, which may be imposed upon the applicant or applicants, for the violation of any of the promises contained in said application, or the violation of this or any other law or laws, relating to or regulating or providing for the sale of
