person whatsoever to sell such liquors in the night time after said hour, under the penalties provided for in section 8 of this act.

Repeal. SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That section 218 of article 10, Code of Public Local Laws, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Elections, how to be held.

If for sale.

If against sale.

Such section shall be held in accordance with the law governing general elections in this State, and the result thereof proclaimed as aforesaid, and if a majority of votes are cast for license in any such election district, then the provisions of this act of 1894, chapter ——, regulating the liquor traffic in the town of Cambridge, shall apply to such election district wherein such election has been held and such majority of votes are cast, in respect to the issuing of licenses to sell spirituous or fermented liquors therein, the sale thereof and the penalties for the violation of law regulating the liquor traffic; and if a majority of votes are cast against license, then the provisions of existing law as to such election district, shall remain in every respect as provided by the act of 1878, chapter 462, and amended by subsequent acts, and incorporated in article 10, Code of Public Local Laws, under the act of 1888, chapter 74.

Expenses of election. SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That all the expenses attending the holding of the special election provided for by this act, shall be paid out of the treasury of said town by the Commissioners of Cambridge.

Effective. SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect, except as therein provided for, from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

_____

CHAPTER 485.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section one hundred and fifty-four of Article eleven of the Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Frederick," relating to the limits of Frederick City.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the taxable limits of Frederick city be and