

of August the treasurer shall sit for two days at the principal town in each election district, and in the months of September and October, one day, for the purpose of receiving taxes, due notice of which sittings shall be given by him; and he shall report to the County Commissioners, at their regular meetings on the second Tuesday in each month, the amount of taxes of all kinds received by him up to that date, the amount of discounts made, and the balance remaining in his hands; and he shall deposit at the close of each week, in one or more of the National banks in said county, all moneys that may have come into his hands during said week—the portion belonging to the State, to the credit of the Comptroller of the State Treasury, and that belonging to the county, to the credit of Cecil county, and shall receive therefor, from said banks, two certificates of deposit, and he shall immediately forward to the Comptroller the certificate showing the amount placed to his credit, and shall exhibit to the County Commissioners the one showing the amount placed to the credit of Cecil county, and file the same in their office; and the money thus deposited to the credit of Cecil county shall be drawn out only upon a check signed by the Treasurer and approved by the president of the board of County Commissioners.

Deposits by treasurer.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 499.

AN ACT to lay out and establish two new Election Districts in Caroline County, to be known as Districts Number Seven and Number Eight, or Ridgely and American Corner Districts, respectively, and also to change the boundary line between the second and third election districts on the east side of Choptank River.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That two new election districts be laid out and established in Caroline county, Maryland, one to be known as district number seven or Ridgely district, and be composed of parts of the second and sixth districts, and the other to be known as district number eight or American Corner district,

Two new election districts.