

New sections. and swine from running at large in the village of Johnsville, in Frederick county, Maryland, be and the same are hereby added to article eleven of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Swine and Geese," to follow section 449, and to be designated sections 449 A and 449 B.

Cattle running at large. Penalty. SEC. 449 A. It shall not be lawful for any person to allow his or her cattle or swine to run at large or be herded upon that portion of the turnpike road leading from the town of Liberty, in Frederick county, Maryland, to the town of Union Bridge, in Carroll county, in said State, which passes through said village of Johnsville, constituting the main street, and extending from the intersection of Blessings lane with said turnpike road at the southern end of said Johnsville to the Methodist Protestant Church at the northern end of said Johnsville, under a penalty of fifty cents for each and every of such cattle or swine found running at large or herded within said limits, which fine, together with the costs of proceedings to impose the same, shall be imposed upon the owner of such cattle or swine by any justice of the peace of said county in and for Johnsville district of said county, upon complaint of any person aggrieved or information by any constable of said county for said district, be collected as other fines and penalties.

Duty of constables. SEC. 449 B. And it shall be the duty of the county constable for said Johnsville district to enforce the provisions of the foregoing section to prevent cattle and swine from running at large or to be herded in said limits, and to this end they are hereby authorized and empowered to impound any such cattle or swine so running at large or herded, make information to said justice of the peace, and to receive twenty-five cents per day for each head of cattle or swine while so impounded, which shall be included in the costs of the proceedings, to be assessed by said justice of the peace in imposing the prescribed penalties.

Approved April 6th, 1894.