

To collect taxes. time the tax list is placed in his hands, and which said clerk shall hold, together with all moneys received by him, subject to the order of the council.

Further duties. SEC. 25. The bailiff shall attend the meetings of the council and perform such duties as it shall direct; he shall prevent disorderly meetings of persons, and he shall enforce all ordinances that may be enacted by the council.

Fees of bailiff. SEC. 26. The bailiff shall have the same fees for making distresses or levying execution for taxes as are allowed county collectors, and for making any arrests, or serving process for violation of any ordinance of the corporation, the same fees as are allowed constables for similar services; and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duty of his office, he may in addition to the remedy on his bond, be fined by the mayor in his discretion not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence, for the payment of which said fines his bond shall be responsible.

Powers of mayor. SEC. 27. The mayor of said town of Brunswick shall have all power, jurisdiction and authority of justices of the peace, in reference to the trial of all cases for violation of corporation ordinances.

Recovery of penalties. SEC. 28. All fines and penalties and forfeitures imposed by this sub-title of this article, or any ordinance of the council, may be collected in the name of the mayor and council before any justice of the peace in the same manner as small debts are collected, and the delinquent shall stand committed to the county jail until the same are paid with costs.

Jurisdiction of officers. SEC. 29. The commissioners of the county, justice of the peace, sheriff, constables and all other county and State officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town.

Powers of council. SEC. 30. The council shall have the same powers as are now exercised by the State board of health of this State, restricted however to the limits of the town.

May regulate privies. SEC. 31. The council shall have full power to regulate privies and to regulate the character of boxes or other fixtures for them, and the mode in which they shall be emptied and their contents removed, and shall prohibit the institution or maintenance of privy sinks, cesspools or other depositories of filth within the corporate limits.