

SEC. 32. The council may pass suitable ordinances for the protection of public buildings, churches, private buildings, shops, trees and fencing in said town from defacement or injury, and may pass ordinances to prevent trespassing upon private property of any individual or corporation within its corporate limits. Protection of buildings.

SEC. 33. It shall not be lawful for any person or body corporate to sell, directly or indirectly, at any place within the limits of the town of Brunswick, or give away, at his place of business, or upon any street, alley or thoroughfare in said town, any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, nor shall any license be issued or granted for the sale of the same within the limits of the said town of Brunswick. Unlawful to sell liquor.

SEC. 34. If any person or body corporate shall sell, directly or indirectly, at any place, or give away at his place of business or upon any street, alley or thoroughfare, any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, within the limits of said town of Brunswick, he shall, on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for said Frederick county, be fined for the first offence not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, and for each subsequent offence, not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars; and on failure to pay the same shall be committed to the jail of said county until said fine and costs are paid; one-half of said fine shall be paid to the informer, and the other half to the board of school commissioners of Frederick county, for the benefit of the public schools situated at the town of Brunswick, where the violation of this section has occurred. Penalty.

SEC. 35. Nothing contained in two preceding sections shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors by pharmacists or druggists who shall or may have obtained license therefor under the license laws of the State, upon the written bona fide prescription of a regular practicing physician, whose name shall be signed thereto, and every such prescription shall be filed and kept by said pharmacists or druggist; and no prescription shall serve more than one purchaser; but no physician shall make or sign any such prescription, unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick, or such liquor is actually required as a medicine; and any physician who shall make or sign any prescription for such liquor, except Provisions as to druggists.