

the east side of the public road leading to Barner's corner, one foot inside of fence; thence north eighty-five degrees and twenty-two minutes, west three hundred and nine and two-tenths feet to a stone in William Brown's meadow, seventy-seven feet southwest of slaughter house; and thence north one degree, east nine hundred and seventy-nine and five-tenths feet to the stone and place of beginning; and the property within said limits shall be subject to such taxes and assessments as may be deemed necessary by said commissioners, to support and maintain the expenses that may be incurred in the improvement of said village.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 528.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with admendments Section 134 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Montgomery County," sub-title "Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks."

Repeal.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and thirty-four of article sixteen of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Montgomery County," sub-title "Liqnor and Intoxicating Drinks," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

Penalty for selling liquor.

134. Any person, corporation, company or association, violating the provisions of the preceding section, by selling, directly or indirectly, bartering or trading any kind of intoxicating liquors in said county, upon conviction or indictment shall be fined not less than fifty (50) dollars and not more than three hundred (300) dollars, and the costs of prosecution of such offender or offenders for each offence; and in default of immediate payment of the fine and costs herein imposed, the offender shall be imprisoned in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than two (2) months nor more than six (6) months; provided, that nothing contained in this act shall apply to cases pending nor to violation of the law which have heretofore occurred, but all such cases and violations shall be prosecuted and punished as if the law hereby repealed was still in force.