

Penalty.

and on conviction thereof, upon presentment or indictment in the Circuit Court for Dorchester county, or upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace in and for said county, upon conviction thereof in said Circuit Court in cases removed from before a justice of the peace for trial therein, such persons shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars, and shall be adjudged to pay the cost of the prosecution, and shall stand committed ten days, unless fine and costs are sooner paid. Any person convicted under this sub-section, unless he pay the fine and costs imposed upon him by the judgments of the court or justice, shall be placed by the sheriff or his deputy in a separate part of the jail and fed on bread and water; and the sheriff shall receive one-third less for boarding or feeding this class of persons than is now or may hereafter be allowed and paid for other prisoners.

Disposition of fines.

SUB-SEC. B. All fines imposed under sub-section A and all fines imposed by the Circuit Court for said county, or by any justice of the peace for any misdemeanor committed within the corporate limits of Cambridge, in any case where the information on oath was laid by the bailiff or any policeman in the service of said town, or in any case where the arrest is made by such bailiff, deputy bailiff or any policeman thereof, shall belong and be paid to the Commissioners of Cambridge; the said commissioners shall also be entitled to all fines imposed for the violation of the town ordinances. The provisions of sub-section A and of this sub-section shall prevail and take effect within the corporate limits of Cambridge, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.
