

spirituous or fermented liquors or drink which is unlawful to sell." The said clerk, after reading said affidavit to each applicant, shall administer said oath to him before granting said license; said oath shall be printed on the back of each license, and the said clerk shall write under said oath or affirmation, the following or like words: The above oaths or affirmation taken by _____ on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____; said clerk shall sign his name to said memorandum. Each person applying for a license shall sign his name in the license book, and the clerk shall make the following or like memorandum under the applicant's name: Cider license number _____, issued to _____ for election district number _____ of Dorchester county, to operate from this _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, to the first day of May, A. D. _____, signed _____ clerk. The person desiring a license must apply therefor, and if a firm desires the same a member must apply, and no license shall be granted to any club or corporation, and no license shall authorize such sale in but one place specified therein.

To exhibit license. SUB-SEC. 5. The sheriff of said county and any constable or public officer thereof may require any person or firm engaged in the sale of cider, other than producer of the fruit or the maker of the cider, selling in quantities, exhibit his license, and any such officer may enter the premises where apple cider is sold, and upon paying therefor at the regular prices, demand and receive from one pint to one quart of any cider or other liquor or drink sold on said premises; and such officers shall be entitled to demand and receive such quantity from every cask or other vessel on said premises.

Penalties. SUB-SEC. 6. If any person or firm or the member of any firm on the premises thereof, shall commit any of the offenses mentioned in this sub-section, he or it shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in the Circuit Court or before any justice of the peace of Dorchester county, said person or the members of said firm, shall be punished as hereinafter provided; if any person or firm, or the member of any firm on its premises, other than the maker or producer of the cider or apples, in any of the election districts of said county where the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors is unlawful, shall sell any cider without first having obtained a license therefor to sell the same, such person or firm shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall stand committed till fine and costs are paid, or in default of paying, for one month; if any person or firm, or