CHAPTER 542.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments, Sections 34 and 35 of Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Birds and Game."

Repeal. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections 34 and 35 of article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Birds and Game," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Violations of sections 32 and 33. 34. Any person violating sections 32 or 33, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace in and for Prince George's county, shall pay a fine of twenty-five dollars for each and every ortolan, sora, rail-bird, partridge, woodcock, rabbit or robin shot or taken; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, and the remainder as directed in section 35 of this article; and on failure, such fine and costs, the offender shall be committed to the county jail or the house of correction for ten days, in the discretion of the justice trying the cause.

Non-resident to obtain license. 35. It shall not be lawful for any person, not a bona fide resident of said county, to shoot any partridge, woodcock or rabbits, in said county, without having first obtained from the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, a license permitting the person therein named to shoot said game in said county, for one year from the day on which such license is issued, and such license shall not be transferable. The person named therein or parties procuring such license, shall pay to said clerk therefor the sum of twenty dollars, which amount shall be paid by said clerk to the board of school commissioners of said county for the use of the public schools, and fifty cents to the clerk as a fee for issuing such license; and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county for gunning therein without such license, shall be fined twenty-five dollars for each and every offence; on failure to
