

ness or other sufficient cause, in the opinion of the court and jury before whom he shall be tried.

270 E. The said judges shall be conservators of the peace during the continuance of the election and until the ballots shall be counted; and the necessary certificates required by this article shall be made out by the judges and clerks, and shall be vested with the power and authority to commit offenders for any breach of the peace, in the like manner as any justice of the peace. Conservators of peace.

270 F. Every justice of election, at every election to be hereafter held in the city of Frederick, in pursuance of law, before the proceeds to take or receive any oath, shall take the following oath or affirmation: I, A. B., do solemnly swear or affirm that I will permit all persons to vote who shall offer to vote at the election now to be held for the city of Frederick, whose names shall appear on the registry or list of voters furnished to me according to law, as qualified voters under the Constitution and laws of this State; and that I will not permit any person to vote at the same election, whose name shall not be found upon the said registry or list of qualified voters; and I will in all things faithfully execute the office of judge of the said election, according to the best of my knowledge and ability, without favor, affection or partiality, so help me God." Oath of judges.

270 G. Every clerk, before he enters any vote in the poll books, shall take the following oath, to wit: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will well and faithfully, without favor, affection or partiality, execute the office of clerk of the election now to be held, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, so help me God." Oath of clerks.

270 H. The several judges and clerks shall be sworn before a justice of the peace, and a certificate of every such oath, signed by the person administering the same, shall be annexed to the poll books. Certificate of oath.

270 I. Every voter shall deliver to the judge of election in the aldermanic district in which he offers to vote, one official ballot, to be furnished to him in the manner hereinafter stated, and the ballot so delivered to and received by the judge of election, shall be deposited in the ballot box until the polls be closed, subject to the limitations hereinafter stated; one accredited representative or challenger of each and every Voters.