

Shooting
quail
unlawful.

or capture, shoot or otherwise kill or injure any quail, either in the day time or in the night time, within one year after the passage of this act.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction before any justice of the peace of said county, or before the Circuit Court for said county, having jurisdiction, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars for each offence, and stand committed until fine and costs are paid, said fine to go to the informer upon whose evidence the conviction is obtained.

Effective.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 554.

AN ACT to authorize the President, Managers and Company of the Baltimore and Yorktown Turnpike Road to cede and convey the same, upon certain terms, to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County.

May cede
turnpike
road to county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the President, Managers and Company of the Baltimore and Yorktown Turnpike Road are hereby authorized and empowered, when the said turnpike road shall be graded between Towsontown and the northern limits of Baltimore city, so as to conform to the grades of that portion of the same occupied by the tracks of the City and Suburban Railway Company, and to afford a clear space of thirty five feet in breadth outside of the railway for the use of public travel, and when at least twenty feet thereof shall be made an artificial road, which shall be bedded with stone well compacted together a sufficient depth to secure a solid foundation to the same, and shall be faced with gravel or pounded stone or other small hard substance so as to secure a firm and even surface, to cede and convey said road and so much thereof as shall not be occupied by the City and Suburban Railway for the use of its tracks, to the County Commissioners of Baltimore county.