

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, upon the completion of the work specified in the first section of this act, and upon their being satisfied that said work has been satisfactorily and properly done, are authorized and empowered in their discretion to purchase all that portion of said turnpike road between the Pennsylvania State line and the northern limits of Baltimore city, not occupied by the City and Suburban Railway and the superstructure of its tracks, and to pay for the same such sums as in their judgment shall be proper compensation for said turnpike road, not to exceed the sum of twenty-two thousand dollars; and upon the consummation of said purchase and the passage of a suitable deed from the said turnpike company to the said County Commissioners, the said road shall be a county road, to be kept up by the county as other county roads, and no tolls to be charged thereon. County may purchase turnpike road.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 555.

AN ACT to authorize and direct the payment of certain sums of money to the treasurer of the board of county school commissioners of Baltimore County, for use of the public schools of said county, the proportions of fines remaining in the hands of Thomas R. Jenifer, late sheriff of Baltimore county, which the said board of county school commissioners would have been entitled under the Code of Public Local Laws of 1860.

WHEREAS, Heretofore the board of county school commissioners of Baltimore county were entitled to a portion of certain fines imposed by the Circuit Court for Baltimore county and justices of the peace of said county; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, On the adoption of Poe's Local Code of Laws said section was inadvertently omitted from said Local Code; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, Thomas R. Jenifer, late sheriff of Baltimore county, has collected certain fines during his term of office, Preamble.
