

roads, during the time limited for working on said roads. Each district supervisor shall keep an account of all the material purchased, the number of days of labor performed by himself and each laborer hired by him, with other expenses authorized by this act, which may be thus incurred, and shall once in each month render such account to the general supervisors, whose duty it shall be to report the same monthly to the County Commissioners, who shall draw their warrant on the collectors for the same, when cash available therefor is not on hand. The time for beginning work on said roads shall be on the first day of May and shall end on the first day of November; but nothing in this act shall authorize any supervisor to do any work in any one year after he has exhausted the amount apportioned to his district, and it shall be the duty of the general road supervisor to notify the district supervisors whenever the amount apportioned to their respective districts shall be exhausted; but nothing in this act shall prevent any supervisor from cutting and removing any trees which shall have fallen across said roads, so as to obstruct travel, nor to the repair of any bridge or washout at any time, if the public convenience requires it, but whenever they have cash available, then all road accounts shall be paid in cash; and it is hereby made the duty of the clerk or treasurer of the board of County Commissioners to, immediately after the adjustment of said accounts, pay over to the general supervisor the amount due each district supervisor, laborer or other persons for materials, teams or implements for the preceding month, and the said general supervisors shall thereupon immediately pay over to the persons entitled to receive the same, the amounts due them, in the same manner in which he has received the same, whether in cash or in script. Before proceeding to perform the duties of his office, the said general supervisor shall give a bond to said commissioners in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, with a surety or sureties to be approved by said commissioners, conditioned to the faithful performance of his duties as such general supervisor. The term of office of such general supervisor and of the district supervisors shall be for one year only, subject to removal for cause by the County Commissioners before the expiration of their said terms.

Account to be kept.

Bond of general supervisor.

101. The County Commissioners are hereby authorized to purchase such teams and implements as in their judgment may be necessary for the purposes of mending the said public roads, and may levy a sum of money for the same over and above the six thousand dollars a year as authorized by this act.

To purchase teams and implements.