

103. It shall be the duty of the supervisors, in preparing any road bed where they have to throw up earth to allow proper drainage, to make such places in said roads wide enough for two vehicles to pass each other, and to remove obstructions at least ten feet from the centre of said roads, and to require all owners to move their fences which infringe on said road, ten feet from the center of the same, if the public convenience shall require, and in all deep cuts and sharp curves, to make the same wide enough for two tracks when the same can be done without excessive cost or inconvenience.

Repairing
road beds.

103 A. The district supervisors of each election district shall have power to hire such horses, oxen, wagons, carts, plows and other implements as may be necessary to the successful performance of his duties hereunder, unless or until the same be furnished by the County Commissioners.

May hire teams.

103 B. The County Commissioners, at their levy-laying session for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four, shall levy a sufficient sum of money to pay off all outstanding county paper on account of roads, and shall also then and annually thereafter levy a sum not exceeding six thousand dollars for the use and repair of said roads in any one year; and the accounts of expenditures in this behalf shall be kept by the said commissioners and published in conformity to section 11, of article 25, of the Code of Public General Laws, title "County Commissioners."

To levy tax
for roads.

103 c. And the said supervisors shall be required to enter into a good and sufficient bond, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned to the proper appropriation of such funds as may come in his hands, and for the safe return of all scoops, scrapes, road implements, etc., which shall be furnished by said County Commissioners, or hired from others, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

Bond of supervisors.

103 D. If in the construction and repair of the public roads of the county, it be necessary for their proper drainage, it shall be lawful for the said supervisors and assistants to let off the water therefrom upon the adjoining lands, at such places as may be proper and necessary; provided, it shall be done with as little injury as possible to the owners of said lands, and that the drains through such lands be continued so as to prevent the spreading of the water so let off over cultivated lands.

Draining roads.