

fifteenth day of January and the tenth day of November in each and every year; nor any woodcock, between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of June in each and every year; nor any muskrat, between the twentieth day of March and the first day of December in each and every year; nor any wild goose, between the first day of April and the first day of November in each and every year.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to hunt, shoot or kill from boats, with lights, in the night time, any muskrat, or to hunt and kill at night, with lights, any partridge or quail in Somerset county; and every person so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for said county, shall be fined five dollars for every muskrat or partridge or quail so killed, and be committed to the county jail until said fine and costs are paid.

Hunting at night unlawful.

Penalty.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person or persons trespassing upon the land of another in said county with dog or gun, without leave, after notice forbidding such trespassing has been conspicuously posted on said land or published in some newspaper published in Somerset county, one week before such trespassing, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction before any justice of the peace for said county, shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars, in the discretion of the justice, and be committed to the county jail until said fine and costs of prosecution be paid.

Penalty for trespassing.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, relating to the protection of birds and game in Somerset county, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as they may conflict with this act; and that all fines imposed and collected under this act shall be paid by the officer collecting the same, over to the treasurer of the Board of School Commissioners of Somerset county, to be applied to the educational fund of said county.

Repeal.

Disposition of fines.

Approved April 6th, 1894.