

in said town for the sale of any goods, wares or merchandise; to regulate and provide for the issuing of license to all traveling persons who dispense medicines or medical advice; to regulate, license and tax all public shows, amusements, entertainments or exhibitions; to restrain disorders, disturbances and immoralities; to regulate, license and tax restaurants and saloons, and other places where malt, spirituous, vinous or fermented liquors are sold; to regulate, license and tax all hackney carriages, omnibuses or other vehicles used in said town for the carriage of passengers; to regulate and license all carriages for private use, and all vehicles used for the carriage, transportation or delivery of freight or merchandise, and all carts or other vehicles which ply for hire; to suppress vagrancy; to levy a tax and impose a license upon dogs and bitches, and to provide for the killing of all worthless, dangerous or annoying dogs and bitches, and of all dogs and bitches not properly licensed; and to regulate or prevent the going at large within the limits of said town, of horses, cattle, sheep, goats, swine, geese, dogs or any other brute, beasts or fowl; and to build or secure a place of confinement for persons charged or convicted of violating the laws and ordinances of said corporation of Taneytown; and they may pass all ordinances necessary from time to time to carry out and enforce the foregoing provisions, and to enforce the observance of such ordinances by reasonable fines and penalties, not exceeding fifty dollars in any one case, as may appear to them right; and they may recover said fine or penalty by an action of debt; and in addition thereto they may provide for the imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding thirty days or until the fine be paid; provided, that no greater sum than one hundred dollars be charged for any one license, and instead of the aforesaid penalties, shall be lawful, in case of the conviction of any person for vagrancy, to sentence such person to hard work for a period not exceeding ten days.

May pass ordinances.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency; and this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.