

bank or County Commissioners; and no part of the said redemption fund shall be used or paid out for any purpose whatever, except the redemption of said bonds; and if the County Commissioners of Caroline county shall, directly or indirectly, use or pay out any portion of the fund, levied for the payment of the principal or interest of the said bonds, for any other purpose, they shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on indictment and conviction, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and the costs of the prosecution, or be confined in the county jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court, and to remain imprisoned until the fine and costs are fully paid.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the bonds hereby authorized shall be exempted from all county and municipal taxes, and that coupons for interest thereon shall be received by the county treasurer in payment of county taxes. Exempt from taxation.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That when the building and furnishing the said court house is completed, the commissioners hereby appointed to contract for and superintend the same shall make a full and explicit statement, under oath, of the amount of bonds required by them to be issued under this act, and a full and detailed statement of the cost of building and furnishing of the said court house, and of their actual personal expenses in and about the same, the names of every person to whom money was paid, for what paid, and the amount thereof, to be filed with the County Commissioners; and the said County Commissioners shall publish said statement for three successive weeks, in two newspapers published in Caroline county, of opposite political views. Statement by commissioners.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the court house authorized to be built by this act shall not be begun until the first day of March, 1895. When to be commenced.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.