CHAPTER 74.

AN ACT to amend and define the corporate powers of the corporation created by Chapter 199 of the Acts of Assembly of the year 1854, entitled an Act to incorporate the Roman Catholic Asylum for Widows in the City of Baltimore.

Corporate powers.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the body corporate and politic created by chapter 199 of the acts of Assembly of the year 1854, entitled an act to incorporate the Roman Catholic Asylum for Widows in the city of Baltimore, under its present lawful corporate name, that is to say, The Little Sisters of the Poor, shall have power from time to time to make such needful by-laws, rules and regulations and such amendments or changes therein as may be needed for the better advancement of its corporate purposes, and shall have further power to establish and maintain and enlarge its present or any other asylum for aged and indigent persons of both sexes in the city of Baltimore, who shall be thereto admitted in accordance with the by laws, rules and regulations so made as aforesaid, and subject to no other restrictions as age, sex, color, race or religious faith than the said body corporate and politic shall see fit in its discretion to establish or recognize.

property.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said body corporate and politic shall have power to take, hold and enjoy property, real, personal or mixed, to an amount not exceeding at any one time the sum mentioned in its original charter of incorporation, and in addition thereto all lands, buildings,
