

SEC. 27. That any fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter or by any ordinance of the council, may be collected by proceedings in the name of the mayor and council before the mayor or justice of the peace; and the said mayor or justice of the peace shall have power to commit the offender to the county jail, on failure to pay such fines and forfeitures, until the same shall be paid with costs. Recovery of penalties.

SEC. 28. That the council shall not expend or contract to expend in any one year, more money than the amount received from taxes and other sources for that year. Expenditures not to exceed receipts.

SEC. 29. That part of the several county roads within the limits of said town are hereby made and declared to be public streets or avenues of said town, and shall be, from time to time, improved and repaired as, in the discretion of the council, the public interest may require and the resources of the town will justify. County roads.

SEC. 30. That the council shall keep and annually publish a tabular statement of the receipts and expenditures of the funds of the corporation. Financial statement.

SEC. 31. That the commissioners of the county, the board of public school commissioners, justices of the peace, sheriffs, constables and all other State and county officers have, and exercise their offices in said town as heretofore, except as qualified by the other sections of this act. The County Commissioners of Montgomery county shall, on or before the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, and on or before the first day of January, in each and every year thereafter, pay over to the council of Kensington that proportion of the entire county levy for the repair of roads which the total real property assessed within the limits of the town of Kensington, bears to the whole amounts of assessed property in Montgomery county, so that the council of Kensington may receive and disburse for the maintenance of the streets of said town, the amount levied upon the real property within the corporate limits of the town of Kensington, for the repair of roads, by said County Commissioners of Montgomery county. Jurisdiction of officers.
Tax for roads.

SEC. 32. That the council shall have power to establish building lines on all the streets in said town or which shall hereafter be opened therein, and to compel all persons hereafter erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto. Building lines.