

shall be subject to a penalty of five thousand dollars, and for the payment of the same his official bond shall be liable.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said judges shall be conservators of the peace during the continuance of the election so held by them, and until the ballot shall have been counted by them and the necessary certificates required by this act shall be made out, and shall be vested with the power and authority to commit offenders for any breach of the peace in like manner as any justice of the peace has under existing laws.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the necessary expenses of the elections provided for by this act shall be paid by the mayor and city council of Baltimore; and the said judges, clerks and the sheriff of Baltimore county shall receive the compensation fixed by law in reference to general elections.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment or any other place where liquors are sold, or for any person or persons directly or indirectly to sell, barter, or give, or dispose of any spirits or fermented liquors, ale, or beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind within the boundaries mentioned in the first, second and third sections of this act, and on the day on which the election mentioned in the fourth, fifth and sixth sections of this act are held; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of section eighty-four of article five of the revised code of eighteen hundred and seventy-eight of the Public General Laws of Maryland.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That all the provisions of the Constitution of Maryland, and of the act entitled "An act to erect Baltimore town, in Baltimore county, into a city, and incorporate the inhabitants thereof," and all acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, supplementary and in addition to the said act, relating to the city of Baltimore, now in force; and all the provisions of article four of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, entitled

Conservators
of the peace.

Necessary
expenses.

By whom paid

What is unlawful.

Extended and made applicable.