

Elect president. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the three commissioners shall, at their first meeting after an election, elect one of their number to be president of the board, and all vacancies in the board of commissioners shall be filled by an election held after ten days' notice given by the remaining commissioners.

Where and when to meet. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall meet in said town on or before the first Monday in June succeeding their election, and from time to time as occasion may require.

Appoint clerk. SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall annually appoint a clerk, who shall keep the minutes of the proceedings in a well bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall perform such other duties as the commissioners may assign him.

Appoint judges of election. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint three judges of election, who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the state, except that the polls shall be opened at two o'clock P. M., and closed at six o'clock P. M. The first election held under the provisions of this act shall be held on the first Monday in May, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and I. D. Gardner, A. L. Ransone and D. W. Dutrow are hereby appointed judges for that purpose.

Appoint bailiff. SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the commissioners may appoint annually a bailiff for said town, who shall perform such duties as may be required of him by said commissioners, and preserve peace and good order in said town; and for that purpose he shall have all the powers of a constable.

Make oath. SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the commissioners and all other officers of the corporation shall, before they enter upon the duties of their offices, make oath that they will diligently and faithfully, to the best of their skill and judgment, perform the duties of their office, and shall file a certificate thereof, signed by the officer before whom said oath was made, among the records of the corporation.
