

Chapter 122.

AN ACT to enable John A. Williams, of Caroline county, to enclose a certain portion of the present public road dividing Dorchester and Caroline counties, and to straighten the boundary lines between said counties.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John A. Williams, of Caroline county, be and is hereby authorized and empowered to open a new road for public trade, thirty feet wide, as follows: Beginning Open new road. in the centre of the road dividing said counties, and leading from Federalsburg to Reliance, near the corner of the Plum orchard in said John A. Williams' field, and running through said John A. Williams' field south five and a-half, east one hundred and twenty-two perches, where it joins the present county road dividing said counties, near Nathaniel Davis' bridge; and immediately after the said John A. Williams shall have opened and constructed, and dedicated to the public the said new road, and not before, the said John A. Williams shall have Empowered to close up old road. the right, and is hereby authorized and empowered to close up the old road and enclose its bed in his respective bounds and inclosure; and from and after the opening of said new road and closing of the present road, the said new road shall constitute the bounding lines between the said counties of Caroline and Dorchester in place of the present road.

Effective. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 23, 1888.