

Chapter 123.

AN ACT to amend the charter and enlarge the powers of the North Baltimore Savings Bank of Baltimore county, as now incorporated under the provisions of title twenty-three, article forty, of the Revised Code of Maryland, providing for the formation of such corporation.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the general law under which the said North Baltimore Savings Bank of Baltimore county is incorporated, the number of directors managing the same is limited to twelve; and whereas experience has shown that the success of the said corporation will be greatly promoted by enlarging the number of directors, and making certain other changes in their present conduct of business, which can only be legally effected by act of legislature; therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the charter of the said North Baltimore Savings Bank of Baltimore county be and the same is hereby so amended and enlarged as to permit and empower said corporation to increase the present number of its directors to twenty-five, electing such directors as in manner provided by its by-laws under its present charter.

Charter amended.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That whenever any deposit shall be made by any minor the directors of said corporation may, at their discretion, pay such sums as may be due to him or her, although no guardian shall have been appointed for such minor, or the guardian of such minor shall not have authorized the delivery or drawing of the same; and the check, receipt or acquittance of such minor shall be as valid as if the same was executed by a guardian of such minor, or the said minor was of full age, provided that such deposit shall have been made personally by said minor; and whenever any deposit shall have been made by a married woman may repay the same on her own receipt.

Deposits of minors—how paid.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 23, 1888.
