

SEC. 13. That the bond of any collector failing to comply with the preceding sections shall be put in suit by the county commissioners at the January term of the circuit court for Somerset county next after the said first day of December, unless said collector shall show a good and sufficient reason for a postponement of such action, but such postponement shall not be for a longer period than one term of said court.

Bond of collector may be put in suit.

SEC. 14. That all documents, books and papers belonging to the office of any collector, are hereby declared to be the property of Somerset county, and at all times shall be subject to the examination of the county commissioners.

What declared to be.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, upon the taking effect of the provisions of this act.

How repealed.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to impair, impede or abate any proceedings already taken or to be taken in the collection of taxes in Somerset county under existing laws.

Effective and how construed

Approved March 23, 1888.

Chapter 138.

AN ACT to empower the Cecil county agricultural society to protect its grounds and exhibitions, by appointing special constables for the same, and to exempt certain persons to whom said society may grant the privilege of bartering, selling and exhibiting within its grounds from the requirement of taking out a license or paying a fee therefor.

WHEREAS a number of persons have formed a society for the advancement of agricultural and mechanical pursuits in Cecil county, and are now incorporated under the general act of incorporation of the State of Maryland; therefore,

Preamble.