

and all of the said persons who may be injured or disabled in the performance of their duties as members of the said force; to thoroughly examine and report to the said board the physical condition of each and every member of said force who may, upon his own application, or whom the said board may think should be retired from the said force and be pensioned under the act or acts in such case made and provided, and to perform all of such other and further professional duties, in connection with the said department and force, as the said board may from time to time deem necessary and prescribe for them.

Whom to examine.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the annual salary of each and every of the said physicians shall be the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars, payable in equal monthly installments, but that the tenure of office of the said physicians, and of each of them, shall be determinable within the appointed year, by a majority of the said board, and in their exclusive discretion; and the said physicians, and each of them, shall be compensated only up to the time of such determination at the rate of the annual salary aforesaid.

Annual salary.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage, and that all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Effective and inconsistencies repealed.

Approved March 29, 1888.