

school fund of the county where such judgment is rendered, and if such fine is not paid within five days from the date of such judgment, the said justice of the peace shall, on the sixth day thereafter, enter judgment of condemnation against the boat, tackle, nets or other equipments of such offender which had been seized by the officer aforesaid, which said boats, tackle, nets or other equipments shall, after ten days notice, be by the said officer sold to the highest bidder for cash, and from the proceeds of such sale shall deduct the fees allowed constables upon executions, the costs incident to such trial and judgment, together with such expense as such officer may have incurred in the taking and keeping of such property, and shall then divide the residue between the informer and the schools of the county equally, said officer not to be liable for any damages or loss of said property while in his custody, which may occur without fault on his part.

What to deduct.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That any commanding officer of any one of the oyster police sloops or steamers, either upon view or information derived from any other person, of a violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall be, and he or they are hereby authorized and empowered, and it is made his or their duty, to arrest and take into custody such person or persons so as aforesaid offending, and the boatmen or other persons found in said boats, and carry such offender or offenders before some justice of the peace of the county wherein such offence was committed, to be dealt with as provided for in this act.

Who to make arrests.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons convicted of offending against any of the provisions of this act shall think himself aggrieved by such conviction, he or they may appeal from the justice of the peace before whom such conviction is had, at any time within ten days from the rendition thereof, to the circuit court of the county in which the trial was had. If any resistance be made to the officer directed to execute this act, by any person or persons offending against the same, the said officer shall summon the posse comitatus

Right of appeal.