

tober sittings. The said respective officers of registration shall sit at said several sittings in the several counties with open doors from eight o'clock A. M. until six o'clock P. M. on each day of their sessions, and their proceedings shall be public and open to free inspection, without any obstruction whatever. The places of their sitting shall be selected as prescribed in said act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That each of said officers of registration in Baltimore city shall be entitled to receive four dollars per day for every day he shall be engaged in the discharge of his official duties, exclusive of office rent and the cost of stationery, and each of said registration officers in the counties shall receive a per diem of four dollars for every day he shall be engaged in the discharge of his official duties.

Compensation

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said several officers of registration shall give notice signed by him or them of the times and places of his or their several respective sittings for five days before his or their several respective sittings in May, June, July, September and October, by publication, as prescribed in the said act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two; and should changes of the places of their sittings become necessary, due notice thereof shall be given as provided by section fourteen of said act.

Give notice of sittings.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That instead of demanding from the clerks of the circuit courts and of the superior court of Baltimore city respectively, the registries of voters and poll books between the last Monday in August and the first Monday in September in each year, as provided in said act of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, chapter twenty-two, the said officers of registration shall demand and receive the same from the clerk of the circuit court of their respective county and of the superior court of Baltimore city, between the last Monday in April and the second Monday in May in each year, for the correction of said registries of Poll books—when demanded.