

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act it shall and may be lawful for any grower or owner of tobacco grown in this state to sell the same either in the state or out of it in hogsheads of any size or weight, or in boxes, or in any other kind or style of package, without being compelled to have the same inspected by the state inspectors, and without being compelled to place the same in the state warehouses for any purpose whatsoever, or to pay any charge for outage, storage, or any other charge thereon, to the state or any of its constituted officers. What is lawful.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any grower or owner of tobacco grown in this state shall desire to store such tobacco in any of the state tobacco warehouses, without having the same inspected by the state inspectors, and without the same being subject to the laws relating to inspections of tobacco, he may do so upon paying storage therefor at the rate of twenty-five cents per hogshead per month, or fractional part of a month, for the first two months that said tobacco shall remain in said warehouses, and fifteen cents per month or fractional part of a month for every succeeding month that said tobacco shall remain in said warehouses; but no charge for outage shall be made upon said tobacco, and all money received from said storage shall be credited to the warehouse receipts of the warehouse in which said tobacco shall be stored, but no tobacco stored in said warehouses under the provisions of this section shall be inspected in said warehouses by any private inspector; and the said tobacco may at any time be removed from said warehouse by the owner upon payment of the storage in the same manner as if said warehouse was a private warehouse. Payment of storage.
No charge for outage.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed. Inconsistent acts repealed.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved March 23, 1888.