

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That a meeting of the visitors appointed, under this act, or a majority of them, shall be held in the city of Baltimore on the first Tuesday in May next succeeding the passage of this act, at which time and place a president and all officers necessary shall be elected, who shall serve for one year, or until the next annual election shall be held under the by-laws to be adopted, and if from any cause a majority of said visitors should fail to attend said first meeting, those who do attend may appoint another time and place for the holding of such meeting for organization, and shall notify the absent visitors of the same, at which adjourned meeting, if there be seven of said visitors present, they may proceed to elect said officers, and at any meeting thereafter seven of said visitors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business.

Where and when to meet.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said visitors shall have authority, and it shall be their duty, to adopt all such by-laws, rules, regulations as may be necessary, not conflicting with the constitution or laws of this state or of the United States, to properly carry out the objects and purposes of this act, and the number, office and duties of all officers, agents or servants shall be by said by-laws prescribed.

Authority to visitors.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if any vacancy should occur in any of the offices prescribed by the by-laws or this act, by death, resignation or removal from the state, said visitors shall fill such vacancy at their next meeting; and if any of said visitors should die, resign or remove from the state, or refuse to act, the governor shall appoint some suitable person to fill the vacancy, and issue the requisite commission.

How to fill vacancies.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That each visitor appointed under this act, and all officers, agents or servants appointed or elected under the provisions of this act, shall take an oath faithfully and duly to exercise their respective offices.

Who required to take oath.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said visitors of the asylum and training school for the feeble-minded of the State of Maryland, shall receive, care for and educate all idiotic, imbecile and feeble-minded persons sent to said institu-

Who to receive and care for.