

of the institution in such securities, real or personal, as they may deem safe.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the institution, its management and finances, shall be subject to inspection at least once a year by the proper committee to be designated by the legislature. How inspected.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said visitors, as soon as they conveniently can after the said first Tuesday in May, shall contract for so much land in one of the counties in this state, conveniently and healthfully located, as in their judgment may be necessary for the purposes of said institution, upon the best terms they can make with the owner or owners of such land, having regard for the best interests of the state, and said institution and its purposes, and which contract shall be reported to and subject to the approval of the board of public works, and upon such contract being approved by said board of public works, the comptroller of the treasury shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer for the purchase money for such land, upon a good and sufficient deed in fee simple, for such land, being executed and delivered to said visitors in their corporate name. Contract for land.
Contract—
who reported
to.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the funds and estate of the said corporation shall not at any time be diverted from the purpose contemplated by its formation without the permission of the General Assembly of Maryland. Funds not to be diverted.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage, and the general assembly reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this act at pleasure. Effective and reservation.

Approved March 31, 1888.