

fine so imposed, they may provide for the imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding thirty-days, in the county jail, or until such fines are paid; and instead of the foregoing penalties it shall be lawful, in the case of vagrancy, to sentence such person to hard labor on the public streets not exceeding ten days.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That all ordinances and by-laws passed by the council shall be sent to the mayor for his approval; he shall return the same to the next stated or special meeting of the council, with his approval or his disapproval, and any ordinance or by-law returned by the mayor without his approval shall not become a law unless subsequently passed at a regular meeting by a four-fifths vote of the whole council, and within sixty days from the time of the return of the ordinance.

Ordinances—
how approved.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That all ordinances and by-laws heretofore passed by the commissioners of Salisbury, and now in force, and not in conflict with the provisions of this act, shall be valid and remain in force until the same are repealed, amended or modified by the mayor and council.

What in force.

SEC. 22. And be it enacted, That from any judgment rendered by the police justice in the enforcement of the ordinances of the town, an appeal shall lie by the party aggrieved to the circuit court for Wicomico county, provided the appeal is taken within thirty days after the rendering of such judgment; but no appeal shall stay process or execution upon judgment, unless good and sufficient bond be given for payment of fine and all costs in case judgment be affirmed.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That the mayor and council shall have charge and control of the lighting of the streets of said town, and shall have power to contract for lighting the same. The mayor and council shall have power to contract with any water company for the use of water, for use in case of fire, for sprinkling streets and other public purposes.

Who to have control.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That all property within the corporate limits of Salisbury, except judgments and private securities, shall be taxed for municipal purposes, and the council at their