

Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, entitled "Frederick County," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables," be amended by adding thereto a new section, to follow section one hundred and eighty-seven, to be known as section one hundred and eighty-seven A, and to be read as follows:

SEC. 187A. Whenever the county commissioners for Frederick county shall create and establish any new election districts, in said county, there shall be appointed, by the proper authorities, two justices of the peace and two constables for each election district so established.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31, 1888.

Chapter 190.

AN ACT to authorize and empower A. H. Dowden, register of wills for Allegany county, to re-index administration and guardian accounts in the general index, in the register of wills office for said county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That A. H. Dowden, register of wills for Allegany county, be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to re-index administration and guardian accounts in the "General Index," in the register of wills office for said, and the expense incurred by said re-indexing to be paid out of the surplus proceeds of the register of wills office, and if there be no such surplus, then the county commissioners of said county may, in their discretion, pay the said A. H. Dowden, register of wills, for said re-indexing, such fees as they may deem a fair and reasonable compensation for said work; provided, however, that the sum allowed for said work shall not exceed six hundred dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31, 1888.
