

Chapter 208.

AN ACT to amend and enlarge the powers of "The Associated Professors of Loyola College, in the City of Baltimore," a corporation duly incorporated by the General Assembly of Maryland, acts of eighteen hundred and fifty-three, chapter one hundred and forty-one, and acts of eighteen hundred and eighty, chapter two hundred and ninety-eight, and to sanction the holding by said corporation of certain property hereinafter set forth.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, On the seventh day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-three, "The Associated Professors of Loyola College, in the City of Baltimore," acquired by lease, duly recorded among the land records of Baltimore city, in liber E. D. number thirty-eight, folio fifty, &c., a lot of ground on the west side of Calvert street, in said city, and erected on part of said lot an educational institution known as Loyola College, for the education of boys and young men, in accordance with its said charter, and erected on the other part of said lot a church edifice, or house of worship, of the Roman Catholic Church, known as "Saint Ignatius Church," and subsequently, on the twenty-second day of August, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-five, by deed of that date, duly recorded among said land records in liber J. B., number ten hundred and sixty-one, folio four hundred and eighty-five, &c., the reversion and free interest in said whole lot was conveyed to the said body corporate.

Preamble.

AND WHEREAS, It is doubtful whether the said body corporate, under its said charter, and supplement thereto, has the right to hold, use, occupy, conduct and manage the portion of said property improved by the said church edifice, or the said church edifice itself, because of its being incorporated for the purposes of an educational institution, now the design of this act is to confer upon the said body corporate the right to hold, use, occupy, enjoy, manage and conduct
