

Chapter 218.

AN ACT to change the present lines dividing Crisfield and Lawson's districts in Somerset county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the present lines dividing Crisfield and Lawson's district, in Somerset county, be and they are hereby changed, so that hereafter the following line shall be the divisional line between said districts :

Boundaries. Beginning at a ditch at Apes' Hole Creek, between the lands of John W. Coulbourn and George R. Sterling, thence running a westerly course by and with said ditch to the county road near the Methodist Protestant church, commonly called Mariner's church, thence by and with said county road to the Crisfield branch of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, thence north by and with said railroad to its intersection with the present line dividing said districts, thence by and with said present line to the Annemessex river ; but all other lines dividing said districts shall remain as heretofore, and the belt of land between the old line and the line herein laid down is hereby annexed to Lawson's district.

Strike off voters. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the register of voters for Crisfield district, during his sitting in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, shall strike from the list of registered voters in said district all legally qualified voters residing in said district, within the limit and lines of the belt hereinbefore annexed to said Lawson's district as aforesaid, all of which said voters it shall be the duty of the register of voters in Lawson's district to add to the legally qualified list of voters of said Lawson's district, if they are otherwise entitled to vote in said Lawson's district.

Effective. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31, 1888.
