

Chapter 220.

AN ACT to incorporate the Homœopathic Dispensary and Hospital of Baltimore city.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Enoch Pratt, David L. Bartlett, Henry James, George S. Brown, George B. Cole, Jordan Stabler, Eugene Levering, Edward Otis Hinkley, Edward C. Robinson, Charles F. Hanna, William Cunningham and Charles F. Pitt, Junior, and their associates and successors, be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of "The Homœopathic Dispensary and Hospital of Baltimore city," for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and conducting, in the city and county of Baltimore, dispensaries and hospitals for the reception, care, and medical and surgical treatment of the sick and injured, in accordance with the principles and practice of homœopathy.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the operations of the said corporation are to be carried on in the city of Baltimore, and in Baltimore county, and that the principal office shall be located in the city of Baltimore.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have, as its members, in addition to the persons named in the first section of this act, all such persons as may be, at any legal meeting of the corporation, nominated and elected members, in pursuance of its by-laws, and also of all such persons as shall have contributed to this corporation the sum of one hundred dollars, or upwards, at any one time.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all other persons who shall, in any one year, contribute the sum of ten dollars to said corporation, shall have the right to participate in the election of directors of that year; provided, however, that no person shall so participate who shall not have paid his contribution at least three months prior to the holding of such election.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the concerns of the said corporation shall be managed by twelve directors, and that Enoch Pratt, David L. Bartlett, Henry James, George S. Brown, George B.
