

Local Laws, entitled 'Allegany county, sub-title 'Sheriff,''' &c., be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows :

SEC. 159. The sheriff of Allegany county shall be allowed for keeping and boarding prisoners committed to the jail of said county such sum as the county commissioners shall determine, not to exceed the sum of thirty cents a day for each such prisoner, and the county commissioners shall have quarterly accountings with him for the same, upon presentation of his accounts for the same, with proper vouchers, and shall levy for the same annually. He shall also be entitled to receive from the county commissioners, to be levied annually by them, for carrying and conveying each person under sentence to the state penitentiary or the house of correction, or to or from any of the jails of any of the counties of the state, and the jails or station houses of the city of Baltimore, or to or from any other place of confinement under the sentence or final order of any authorized judicial authority, the sum of twenty-five dollars for one person so carried and conveyed, and for each additional person so carried or conveyed at the same time, fifteen dollars, and said compensation, so specified, shall be held to include all expenses incident to the carrying and conveying of such person or persons ; provided that, as far as is possible, the said sheriff shall convey, and shall be held and required to convey, to each of such institutions all persons sentenced to be so conveyed at the same term of court. No other fee, perquisite, or allowance whatsoever, shall be granted, allowed, or levied for said sheriff except such as are specified in the Code of Public General Laws relating to sheriffs.

Fees to sheriff.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the first day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

Effective.

Approved April 4, 1888.