

hereby repealed, so far as the same refers to Trappe district, otherwise known as election district number seven, in said Wicomico county.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 17, 1888.

Chapter 32.

AN ACT to incorporate Saint Joseph's Seminary, of Baltimore city.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, James, Cardinal Gibbons, Edward McColgan, John R. Slattery, Alfred B. Leeson and John H. Greene have formed themselves into a society for religious, charitable and educational purposes, and are about to purchase certain buildings for a seminary, to be known as "Saint Joseph's Seminary, of Baltimore city," for the residence of themselves and their assistants, and other buildings as places of divine worship and for school purposes; and propose, when their means shall permit, to extend their operations by the purchase or erection of other like buildings in the State of Maryland and elsewhere, the object of the society being the education of young men for the Roman Catholic priesthood; and whereas, for the better carrying out and attainment of the purposes aforementioned, they have prayed an act of incorporation; therefore, Constituted a body politic.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said James, Cardinal Gibbons, Edward McColgan, John R. Slattery, Alfred B. Leeson and John H. Greene, and their successors, be and are hereby constituted a body politic, or corporate, by the name of "Saint Joseph's Seminary, of Baltimore City," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, with full power and authority to provide for the admission and rejection of members, the right to sue and be sued, to contract and be contracted with, and to implead and be