

Employes to bond.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That said directors shall require all officers and employes of said company, who shall have the control, care and custody of any of the funds and moneys of said company, or into whose hands the same, or any valuable papers, or property of said company, shall arise, to give a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the president of the company, conditioned for the faithful performance of their trust, and the duties of their office or employment, and said bond shall be liable for the faithful performance of said duties, and for such sums of money, not exceeding the penalty of said bond, as shall come into the care and custody, or hands, of the said officer or employe executing the same, and said company is hereby authorized to bring suit upon said bond in the name of the corporation, in case of any default therein.

Penalties.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully injure any part or parcel of said bridge, or shall wilfully obstruct the free passage over the same, or the ways thereto, he shall forfeit and pay to the State of Maryland, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars, and the costs to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Frederick county, though one-half of which fine shall go to the informer; and in the event said fine and costs are not paid, the person so committed shall stand committed to the jail of Frederick county for not less than thirty days; and the right to appeal to the circuit court for Frederick county, upon the part of the accused, is hereby reserved to him; but in the event that said bridge is burned by any one, then this section is not to apply; and he, she or they, so offending, as aforesaid, may and shall remain liable to actions at the suit of said company for further damages for said acts.

Pay owner of ferry.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That before the provisions of this act shall have effect, said bridge company shall agree, in writing, under the seal of said company, and said company is hereby authorized and empowered to have and employ a seal, attested by its president, to be