in his district ; and he is hereby required to commence the ordinary repairs of said public roads and bridges in the month of May, and to complete the same by the first day of October in each and every year.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That each of the said supervisors is hereby required to keep an accurate account of the number of days he was engaged on the repairs of said roads and bridges in his road district as supervisor ; the number of hands worked each day, and the number of days labor performed by each hand ; the number of horses, wagons, carts and plows used, and the number of days they were in use, and report the same, under oath, to the county commissioners.

Keep accurate account.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if any supervisor appointed under the provisions of this act shall render to the county commissioners a false statement of accounts, or shall be guilty of wilful neglect of duty, he shall be liable to punishment and indictment by the grand jury ; and if convicted in the circuit court for said county shall be fined any sum in the discretion of the court, not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence.

Penalty.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners are hereby authorized to purchase for the use of the county road scoops, hoes, shovels and picks for the purpose of repairing said roads and bridges, to be distributed with the several supervisors, who shall take care of them, and pass them to their successors when called for.

Purchase scoops, &c.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners shall have general supervision over the public roads of the county, and it shall be their duty to see that they are kept in good repair ; and they are hereby empowered to suspend or dismiss any road supervisor for neglect of duty.

General supervision.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners are hereby authorized to determine the per diem to be allowed to the several supervisors, hands, horses, wagons, carts and plows, and determine the number of hours that shall constitute a day's work, and cause the

Per diem allowed.