

estate within said corporate limits, and must continue to reside in said corporate limits during their term of office; they shall receive no pay for their services, except the president, who shall receive the fees hereinafter allowed.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the five commissioners elected shall choose one of their number president, and all vacancies in the commissioners shall be filled by an election held after ten days' notice given by the remaining commissioners. Choose president.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall meet in some convenient place in said town on or before the first Monday in June next succeeding their appointment, and as often thereafter as may be necessary to the discharge of the duties of their office. When to meet

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the commissioners, annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint the three judges of election, who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the state, except that the polls shall be opened at two o'clock, P. M., and closed at six, P. M., and the judges and clerk shall make their returns to the commissioners, but shall receive no compensation for their services. The first election shall be held before Nathan T. Talbott, L. J. Hayes and John W. Brown, who are hereby appointed judges for that purpose. Hours of polling.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall, annually, appoint a clerk who shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall perform such other duties as the commissioners may assign him. Appoint clerk.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall also, annually, appoint a chief bailiff, and such number of under bailiffs as they may deem necessary. Appoint bailiffs.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall allow their chief clerk, chief bailiff and under bailiff, or bailiffs, such compensation as they shall think proper. Compensation

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the commissioners and all other officers of the corporation shall, before they enter upon the duties of their Make oath.