

Chapter 260.

AN ACT to add an additional section to article twenty-nine of the Code of Public General Laws, to be numbered thirteen B, relating to mandamus and injunction.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following be and the same hereby is added as an additional section to article twenty-nine of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, to be numbered Additional section.

13B. No court shall refuse to issue a mandamus or injunction on the mere ground that the party asking for the same has an adequate remedy in damages, unless the party against whom the same is asked shall show to the court's satisfaction that he has property from which the damages can be made, or shall give a bond in a penalty to be fixed by the court, and with a surety or sureties approved by the court, to answer all damages and costs that he may be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to pay to the party asking such mandamus or injunction by reason of his not doing the act or acts sought to be commanded, or by reason of his doing the act or acts sought to be enjoined as the case may be.

Mandamus—refusal to issue.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 4, 1888.

Chapter 261.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact section seven hundred and ninety-three, article four, Public Local Laws, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Navigation."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section seven hundred and ninety-three of article four of Public Local Laws, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Navigation,"

Repealed and re-enacted