

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who may violate any of the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, be fined for each and every offence the sum of fifty dollars and costs of prosecution, and be committed to the county jail until said costs and fines are paid; and of all fines collected under this act one-half shall go to the informer and the other half be paid to the county commissioners for the betterment of public roads in said county.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the right of appeal from the decision of the justice of the peace in all cases is reserved to the defendant to the circuit court; and provided that unless the defendant shall give good and sufficient bond or security for his appearance at the next term of court, and to pay all fines and costs that may be imposed upon him, he shall stand committed to the county jail until said fines and costs are paid, or until the said circuit court, upon appeal, shall reverse the judgment of sentence of the said justice of the peace.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 4, 1888.

Chapter 267.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact section one of the acts of eighteen hundred and eighty-four, chapter two hundred and seventy-eight, entitled "An act to repeal and re-enact chapter one hundred and thirty-four of the acts of eighteen hundred and seventy-six, relating to the setting of pound nets in the waters of Elk, Sassafras and Bohemia rivers, and their tributaries, in Cecil county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one of chapter two hundred and seventy-eight of the acts of eighteen hundred and eighty-four be and the

Repealed and re-enacted.