

have power to stay all further proceedings in such action until all or any of the costs adjudged by the court of appeals, or by that court, shall have been paid by the party adjudged to pay the same.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall ^{Effective.} take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1888.

Chapter 272.

AN ACT to repeal section one hundred and twenty-five of article ten of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables," as enacted by chapter three hundred and seventeen of the acts passed at the January session eighteen hundred and seventy, and re-enacted by chapter one hundred and four of the acts passed at the January session eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, and to re-enact the same, with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and twenty-five of article ten of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables," as enacted by chapter three hundred and seventeen of the acts passed at the January session eighteen hundred and seventy, and as re-enacted by chapter one hundred and four of the acts passed at the January session eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

125. Every summons in a civil action, and every writ of replevin issued by a justice of the peace of Dorchester county, and all writs or warrants in criminal cases issued by a justice of the peace of said county, shall be made returnable before the justice who issues the same, or Repealed and re-enacted.

Summons made returnable.