

Shall file written affidavit.

son shall file a written affidavit, sworn to before said clerk, that said applicant has bona fide, and without intending to evade the spirit and meaning of this act, duly provided, and will at all times during the continuance of said license, maintain and keep for use at least three chambers more than are needed for such person's own private or family purposes, for the reception of guests or permanent or transient boarders, and at least four beds with sufficient covering therefor, and stabling for at least six horses, and that said chambers and beds are and shall remain upon the said premises on which spirituous or fermented liquors are by this act licensed to be sold, and in which shall be stated the name and residence of the applicant, and the location of the premises on which the business is to be conducted, with name or names of the owner or owners thereof, and that said applicant has not been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this act.

Must pay before obtaining license.

SEC. 152. No license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Harford county shall be granted to any applicant who has complied with the preceding sections of this act until said applicant shall have paid to the clerk of the circuit court for Harford county the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, and the further sum of five dollars for approving and filing the said bond and other papers and for his other costs and charges in issuing the said license, and which said sum of three hundred and fifty dollars the said clerk shall pay over to the county commissioners of Harford county within thirty days after it has been received by him, without any abatement or deduction whatever; and said county commissioners shall apply all sums so received by them to the improvement and benefit of the public roads, bridges and highways of Harford county, and to no other purpose.

License to be displayed in public.

SEC. 153. Every person having complied with provisions of the preceding sections, and having obtained a license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors in Harford county, shall display such license to conspicuous view in the room or locality where he proposes to sell so as to be easily read. And no such person shall sell