

any such liquors at any place in Harford county other than upon the premises named in said applicant's written affidavit, and no such license shall authorize sales by any person who shall neglect the requirements or violate the provisions of this section.

SEC. 154. Any person buying spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drink of any kind, without first ascertaining that the person selling such has a license to sell the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace of Harford county, shall pay a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars; provided, however, that any person who shall be used as evidence to convict any one selling without license shall be relieved from said fine, and no testimony given by him shall be used to criminate him in any other proceeding.

SEC. 155. No license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors shall be granted to any female, or to a person under the age of twenty-one years; nor shall any person licensed under this act employ any female or minor as a bartender, agent or clerk to sell, give or deliver spirituous or fermented liquors, or intoxicating drinks of any kind or description, to purchasers or others at his place of business.

SEC. 156. Any person licensed under this act, and so employing any female or minor as set forth in the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than three months, and the license of such person may be suppressed in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 157. It shall not be lawful for any person having license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Harford county to permit any game of chance or skill, for profit or amusement, to be played in the barroom or other public room on the premises occupied by or under the control of such person.

SEC. 158. Any person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not Shall pay a fine.

Females and minors prohibited.

Fined or imprisoned for violation.

Gambling not allowed.

Fines.