

less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each offense.

Selling to minors, etc. SEC. 159. It shall not be lawful for any person licensed under this act to sell or give away, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or fermented liquors, or any kind of intoxicating drink, to a minor or person under the age of twenty-one years, nor to sell such liquors, or any of them, to any person on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday.

Penalty for violation. SEC. 160. Any person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than sixty days, nor more than six months, and the license of such person may be suppressed in the discretion of the court.

Days on which liquor cannot be sold. SEC. 161. No person, whether a licensed hotel keeper or not, shall sell directly or indirectly, give away, loan or in any manner supply or furnish to any person whomsoever any spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drink of any kind, at his, her or its place of business on any highway, or at any public place in Harford county, on any day set apart by law for the election of national, state or county officers, or any of them, on any day on which a general county primary meeting or election or a general county convention shall be held for the purpose of nominating directly or selecting a delegation to nominate a candidate or candidates to be voted for at any ensuing election; provided, previous notice of such day of holding such primary meeting or election or county convention shall have been given by advertisement in one or more newspapers printed in Harford county, or by handbills set up in two or more public places in each election district of said county for at least ten days prior thereto.

Penalty for violation. SEC. 162. Any person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county