

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall annually, on or before the second Monday in May, report to the county commissioners the probable amount, in their judgment, necessary for the relief and support of the poor and insane in the almshouse and asylum, together with a statement, in writing, exhibiting each general item of expenditure and the amount thereof, the number and names of the inmates of the almshouse and insane asylum at the date of their report, as also such as may have been in and left subsequent to their previous report, and also an account showing the gross amount received and expended, and how expended, within the same period.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners at their annual session for making the county levy shall, upon the receipt of the report of said trustees, levy the amount estimated by the trustees, if in the judgment of said commissioners the amount so estimated be necessary for the support of the almshouse and insane asylum and inmates; and the said trustees shall not in any one year expend or make contracts to expend a sum greater than the amount of money so levied by the commissioners.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That all the funds of the said almshouse and insane asylum, and all sums of money levied by the county commissioners for the relief and support of the poor and insane, and all money arising from the sale of any of the property under the control of said trustees, or from any other source whatever, shall be deposited with the treasurer of Cecil county, and shall be paid out by the said treasurer upon the warrant of the said trustees, as provided by section twelve hereof.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the said trustees may pay the secretary, selected under section nine hereof, a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars per annum as a salary, and so pro rata during his continuance in office.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall be entitled to two dollars per day for each day they shall attend to the discharge of their duties as trustees.
