

shall be compelled to labor more than four miles from his place of residence.

May be exempted.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person not possessing taxable property assessed at five hundred dollars or upwards, from whom such labor on the public roads may be required, under the provisions of the preceding section, shall make it satisfactorily appear to the road supervisor of the road district in which he resides that he is physically unable to perform the said labor, either by reason of permanent disability, or that said disability existed at the time at which his services were required, and is not able to pay the commutation hereinafter provided, it shall be the duty of the said supervisor to exempt such persons from the performance of said labor and commutation for labor; and in case such supervisor shall refuse to exempt any person who shall apply for exemption as herein provided, such person, if he shall feel aggrieved by such refusal, may appeal to the county commissioners of the county, whose decision shall be final.

May commute

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the county commissioners of said county may make such commutation of labor for teams and carts or wagons as they may deem proper.

Shall pay supervisor.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That every person liable as aforesaid to labor on said public roads who shall fail to obey the summons of the road supervisor, or furnish a substitute, shall, upon demand made by said supervisor, pay to said supervisor the sum of one dollar and fifty cents for each and every day (not exceeding two days) that he shall fail to perform such labor; and the said supervisor shall collect and account, under oath, to the county commissioners for all sums of money so collected and exemptions granted, and shall apply the said money, under the direction of the said county commissioners, to hiring labor to work on the public roads; and shall pay over to his successors, upon the order of the county commissioners, any surplus that may remain in his hands; and the said supervisor shall make the said report, under oath, once in twelve months; and it shall contain, in addition to the things hereinbefore provided, a true account of
