

such times or trips as they shall not pass through any toll-gate on said road, and that whenever any such parties so assessed shall pass through any such toll-gate they shall be chargeable with the regular rates of toll, and provided that no person passing from part of his farm to another part thereof shall be charged with toll for so doing.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons whomsoever, riding or driving any animal or thing for which tolls are lawfully presented by said company, shall pass through any private road, gate, bar, passage, way, or other grounds with intent to avoid any toll-gate upon said road, or to evade the payment of toll, or having traveled over a part of the roads of said company with a team of horses or other animals for which tolls are presented, shall, when approaching a toll-gate of said company, detach a part thereof with intent to defraud the said company, or avoid the payment of the toll for passing through any of its gates, or over its turnpike walls, such person or persons, in all or any of the ways so offending, shall for every such offence respectively forfeit and pay to said company a sum of not less than two nor more than five dollars, to be sued for, adjudged and recovered, with costs of suit, before any justice of the peace of the county wherein such party offending may reside or do business, in like manner as debts of a similar amount may be sued for and recovered, and with the same right of appeal as in such cases.

Evasion of
tolls.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 6, 1888.